1. In the immediate area of Soviet Astara, inhabitants of the frontier area between Anuz and Artepe have been observed, between 0800 and 1400 hours daily, being transported by trucks to Kalla Dahana via a little known route through Zingalash and Rud Kenar (over the Mardasi bridge).
2. Since the first part of March 1952 approximately 600 civilian workers of both sexes and soldiers have been engaged in building a small landing strip and gun positions near a village located behind Soviet Alasha. The workers are transported daily from the surrounding villages of Bagh-Chesara, Anuz, Bandsar, and Zingalash to the village via a non-military road and returned to their homes in the evening at the end of work.
